Endura Products, Inc. Acquires FrameSaver

Acquisition Expands Endura's Line of Door Component Products

GREENSBORO, NC –Endura Products, Inc., the market leader in entry door component systems, announces the acquisition of FrameSaver.

Located in Nacogdoches, Texas, FrameSaver is known for their rot-resistant, moisture proof, wood door frames. The FrameSaver® technology features wood door frames fingerjointed with a revolutionary wood composite material made from a combination of recycled sawdust and virgin plastics. Featuring a rot proof guarantee, the FrameSaver® technology is available in entry, patio and garage door frames.

Bruce Procton, President of Endura Products, Inc., said, "The acquisition of FrameSaver is a continuation of our goal of providing innovative products, solutions and services within the building products industry through internal growth and complementary acquisitions. The combined offerings of Endura and FrameSaver improve our ability to give our customers, the builder and homeowners products which solve real world problems relating to door unit performance. Last year, FrameSaver did $34 million in sales and will immediately be accretive to Endura."

The acquisition of FrameSaver enhances Endura's commitment to delivering innovative solutions and products to the ever-expanding residential new home construction market.

Kevin MacDonald, Vice President of Operations for Endura, said, "The FrameSaver® technology complements Endura's Force 5™ Door Systems. Our goal is to provide real-world, door framing solutions for pre-hangers, builders and homeowners. Adding FrameSaver to Endura's product mix enables us to reach that goal every day."

The acquisition was completed December 1, 2005. Terms of the deal were not disclosed.

-More-

Rick Hagel, Chief Executive Office for FrameSaver said, "Endura Products, Inc. is a growing company with world-class innovation and we are very happy to be included in the Endura family. The FrameSaver management team has been in this business a long time and we are excited to see our hard work and ideas move to the next level. The combined product lines will provide excellent cost, marketing and product mix synergies."
